

Grange Park goes red and white

Remember that glorious day when the Black Cats were promoted? Well we do, and as far as Black cats obsession goes we get top marks.

Grange Park held a Red and White day in honor of the Black Cats - the champions!

On a glorious summer day, the children and staff had a day off dressing in boring old uniform, turned up for school dressed in Red and White and had fun all day!

Even the schools kitchen staff entered into the spirit of things and made us red and white biscuits for pudding.

In the afternoon we held a 'teacher's versus kids' sports Competition which of course the kids won!

The teachers have promised revenge next year.

The results of the competition were as follows:

In netball, Mrs. Hughes was sent off for arguing with the umpire.

Even so, the teachers won by five goals to one,

Boooooooooooooooooooooo!

Rounders: The Kids played a blinding game and won by a landslide. So, who won the penalty Shoot out? I'll give you one guess?

The kids! Teachers just can't take a good penalty it appears.

So all of this begs the question, what's red And white and green all over? Grange Park Sunderland rules!

SHAME ON YOU MRS.HUGHES!

HAWAY THE LITTL'UNS!

KIDS VERSUS TEACHERS? NO COMPETITION!
